IN MEMORIAM

To, Lena W. Hanenkrat, my mother.
"A Rose Still Grows Beyond The Wall
Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew.
Shedding its sweetness day and night,
As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowing rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shown a beam of light,
Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear or pride,
It followed the light through the crevice-length
And unfolded itself on the other side,
The light and the dew, the broading view,
Were found the same as they were before;
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.
Shall claim of death cause us to grieve
And make our courage faint or fail?
Nay, let us faith and hope receive;
The rose still grows beyond the wall,
Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side
Just as it will forevermore.
In loving memory from a daughter
Alma Hanenkrat Hemmer and family,
Dolgeville, N.Y. 11-11-1t

Appomattox Primary School Preparing for American Education Week, Nov. 14 - 20 Urge That Public "Care"

Appomattox Primary School stressed today that American Education Week, Nov. 14 - 20, would be an excellent time for all parents and other citizens to demonstrate their concern for what happens in -- and to --the school.

The school will offer special ized programs and demonstrations throughout the week to mark the observance's theme, "The School are Yours. Help Take Care of Them," according to Mrs. Pat Torrence, Principal. The events include a Metrics Workshop, Title I Advisory Committee Visitation Luncheon, Book Fair, PTA Meeting on November 18, 1976 at 8:00, and displays. In addition, the PTA will honor the teachers and aides at a tea while parent volunteers provide the release time for the especially thoughtful occasion.

American Education Week, observed annually since 1921, seeks to encourage local citizen support and active participation in the improvement of education. This year the program will stress learning more about the schools as a basis for active and continuing personal involvement. The nationwide event is sponsored by the National Education Association, The American Legion, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and the U. S. Office of Education.

Pictured above are Mrs. Dollye Forest, second year teacher and Mrs. Winnie Agee, Longwood College student teacher at APS, preparing for the PTA Meeting on November 18th, "Your Child's Day from 9 'til 3." This program will afford parents the opportunity to learn the objectives and activities of various types of instruction involving our children at the Appomattox Primary School.
